

Swine Statistical References - University Reference Sites for Statistics

Author
Palmer J. Holden, Iowa State University

Reviewer
Todd See, North Carolina State University

Introduction

Several universities have excellent references to swine information both for their respective states as well as national data and links to websites. They also provide references to studies done on various facets of the pork industry. To go to the website click on the internet link provided in the third column of the references.

Objectives

- Locate cost of production data
- Locate short review papers on many facets of the pork industry
- Locate papers on the competitiveness of the pork industry

University Reference Sites for Statistics

Iowa (John Lawrence)	University reference site for statistics.	http://www.econ.iastate.edu/faculty/lawrence/
Missouri (Ron Plain)	University reference site for statistics.	http://ssu.agri.missouri.edu/faculty/RPlain/default.htm
Kansas	University reference site for statistics.	http://www.agmanager.info/live-stock/marketing/default.asp
Purdue	University reference site for statistics.	http://www.agecon.purdue.edu/extension/

Reference to products in this publication is not intended to be an endorsement to the exclusion of others which may be similar. Persons using such products assume responsibility for their use in accordance with current directions of the manufacturer. The information represented herein is believed to be accurate but is in no way guaranteed. The authors, reviewers, and publishers assume no liability in connection with any use for the products discussed and make no warranty, expressed or implied, in that respect, nor can it be assumed that all safety measures are indicated herein or that additional measures may be required. The user therefore, must assume full responsibility, both as to persons and as to property, for the use of these materials including any which might be covered by patent.

This material may be available in alternative formats.